The Clan Munro. A powerful and ancient clan, whose territory was on the north side of the Firth of Cromarty. They are supposed to be descended from some of the original tribes of Moray. The head of the family is Munro of Foulis. Their war cry is "Castle Foulis ablaze" and their badge "Club Moss." This clan has contributed many distinguished men to the country. It is worthy of note that in the Swedish army under Gustavus Adolphus, during the Continental wars in the 17th century, there were 27 field officers and 11 captains of the name of Munro.
